Have you ever tried to take a really good portrait-like photo of your favorite pet only to discover that they really can be difficult to properly photograph. They won't sit or stand the way you want them to. If you use an on-camera flash you end up with a picture showing red, green or yellow eyes. There is probably a look or expression your pet has that makes you smile. It might be a slight tilt of the head they exhibit when you say certain words, it might be a soulful look that melts your heart or it might even be a display of attitude that makes you chuckle. This is what separates a cute snapshot from a true portrait.

Unlike those "Big Box Stores" that give you a quickie print of your pet sitting in a wagon we specialize in "In-Home" portraits of your pets. We bring the necessary lighting equipment and backdrops to take those classic pet portraits, either indoors or in an environment of your choice such as the park or beach. Check out our gallery of pet portraits and see for yourself why we provide a superior service.
